Although every sincere christian must lament that inattention to the ordinances of religion, and the small impression which its sacred truths make on the hearts of men, which are visible in many and extensive portions of our country; yet, the Assembly have heard, with the highest satisfaction, of the prevalence and increasing influence of vital and practical godliness throughout the greater part of the Presbyteries which compose our body. Within those wide districts, towards the south and west, from which the last Assembly heard, with do much pleasure, the glad tidings of the great salvation manifested there, the power of religion appears still to prevail, with little...
