Outskirts Press. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 264 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.7in. x 1.2in. Think of the last time you were in the snow. This is the story of Haole, a bird that cant fly but surfs fifty foot waves in Antarctica and is about to make the most important discovery of his life - The inner game of surfing -The magic that makes life a game. The Adventures of Haole the Penguin begin on a floating slab of ice connected to the Antarctic mainland and pummeled by massive storm waves all winter. Its a hell of a place to live, but the penguins call it home. They spend their time divided between fishing, staying warm, and gossiping about one another. This was the penguins entire universe. No penguin ever ventured outside of this landscape and the few miles of ocean that surround it. On several occasions Haole had asked his mother about this very thing. One time it was while they stood together, watching a storm approach over the cliffs to the west. Whats past those cliffs Haole asked innocently. Just more ice, his mother had responded automatically. She used to seem so big to Haole, towering above him, but since he had his growth spurt she didnt seem so huge. She was just a little taller than him now. The answer didnt satisfy him. Well, whats beyond that he persisted innocently. Even more ice, she said firmly, then added and more cliffs. There was a long pause as Haole doubted for a second that his mom knew everything. MomWhat is it, Haole She looked at him sweetly. Well, whats beyond that He was going to repeat the question until he got an answer other than ice. His mothers feathers ruffled. Why dont you spend your time thinking about...
